

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.
White streaks—Fair.
Blue—Rain or snow.
With black above—will warmer.
If black—beneath—colder will be.
Unless black's shown—no change we'll see.
The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 9 o'clock to-morrow evening.

A SUN IN CANCELLATION.

An easy explanation
Of a sun in cancellation, Take from a name we've heard—the letter C.
Then without hesitation By a little calculation We discover that the next is A "Z" we need to take it.
For by lightning, we'll take it From Hawaii's dusky Queen a far,
And, as might be suspected, A's the next to be selected.
And the fourth and last will be an
R.
The answer you can spell it,
For by rough, I hate to tell it, It's so plain the blind can read it from afar Poor Democrats detected, Know the President they "loved" Is America's C.

DICK STRAUDE's baseball club of Lawrence Creek came in Saturday afternoon to wife Professor J. R. Spurgeon's club out of existence, but they are now convinced that they struck a knot. The Mayville nine won by a score of 20 to 5, and they only used one hand.

PIKE in Frankfort destroyed a couple of wagon and repair shops belonging to Louis Weisenberg and A. J. Bartlett & Co. Charles E. Egbert, painter, asleep in the buildings, was fatally burned. Loss several thousand, with small insurance.

W. B. MATHEWS & Co. are running only one or two days a week, and they see no immediate prospects of a betterment. The Wilson Bill with its free Canadian lumber proviso will knock the everlasting socks off the lumber business of this region.

Old man Foyle was foiled. Lives in Newport. Charged his daughter Mollie with adultery. At the trial Mollie food for marriage certificates to James McCulloch. Of course that settled it, and the old man was fined $25 for using abusive language to Mollie, and that was settled, too.

HON. JOHN D. CARROLL, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, and Miss Harriet Sanford, daughter of L. M. Sanford, President of the Bank of New Castle, will marry April 3d.

R. B. LOVELL, the leading grocer put a six line local in Friday's LEDGER announcing "3 dozen eggs for 25 cents," and before 9 o'clock Saturday morning had closed out his entire stock of over 300 dozen.

DR. PARKER of Annapolis, Md., was to marry Miss Anna Van Pelt at Russell last Thursday evening. The groom didn't appear, and a few hours after the appointed hour the bride received word that, while going to see a patient, he had been thrown from his horse and killed.

It was his last professional visit, and on his return home he was at once to start West to claim his bride. This is one of the tragedies of life.

THE Union Services preparatory to the coming of Good Friday last night at the First Baptist Church were attended by fully 1,000 people. The exercises were very interesting, and the music was the best that has ever been heard in Mayville. These services will be continued until next Sunday, when the service will be Wednesday night. Loud Prizes.
Ladies who attended the Easter display of Mrs. L. V. Davis were decided in their expressions at the beauty of the trimmed bonnets and hats on exhibition. It certainly was the most elegant display, and the fact that the efforts have been so highly appreciated, Mrs. Davis maintains as full stock of trimmed goods throughout the entire season.

W. J. H. Traynor, Supreme President of the American Protective Association and publisher of THE Patriotic American at Detroit, Mich., has issued an official address to the Order.

He states that his travels in the West have convinced him that the A. P. A. is a mighty force, which no power on earth is potent enough to restrain, although monopoly, the press, a large proportion of the Protestant clergy—to their shame and ignorance be it said—court politicians and the Priesthood have joined issue to suppress it.

He reminds members that despite local victories the alleged "center of corruption and National danger," viz., the National Legislature and Government, remains apparently as powerful as ever.

He exhorts every member to attend caucuses and independently of party "elect only trustworthy members of the Order, or equally good and reliable citizens, as delegates to conventions."

In his reference to the "most efficient patriotic organizations recently formed as 'another ingenious weapon forged by the enemy,'" and advises that they be quietly let alone.

The address exhorts persistent opposition to immigration as a primary source of financial panics and "the main avenue of Priestly supremacy," and advocates taxation of all property, "ecclesiastical palaces" included, public inspection of convents and vigilant guarding of the franchises and the Public Schools against "the inroads of foreigners and absolutism."

In conclusion the President suggests as a watchword Wendell Phillips' utterance, "The uneducated ballot is the winding sheet of liberty."

A Bad Picture.
Covington Commonwealth.—The line of defense pursued by Mr. Brockbridge in his entanglements with Miss Pollard is humiliating, and yet no mitigation or excuse will be likely to aid him in his dilemma. Whatever the verdict of the jury proves to be, he will probably continue his candidacy for re-election to continue in the position of a man who is reaping through the shadowed years, as only a woman can, the penalty of her wrongdoing and sin. The whole trial presents a tragic picture, wrapped in sorrows and tears, and lurid, reckless words past condoning. But a woman, over-tempted, chafing under the burdens imposed upon her by the misfortune of the trial, and the whole of her ambitious youth, yields to the persuasion of a lure in the guise of sympathy and love, and discards her duty to her country. Supposing she becomes a toy, broken all too soon, and discarded by her betrayer to meet the foe, she will find herself in a position to help and encourage, she will find there is none.

very sick with pneumonia, complicated with heart trouble and dropsy. I called in my family physician and gave him the best medicine but the doctor finally told me there was hope, and the only thing that could be done was to make him comfortable until the end. At this point I decided to give him Stock's Emulsion. It did it. He was now eating the most miracles for others. It was very regular doses every three hours and the fever began to decrease from the first dose, and decided improvement was noticed the next day. In three days he was sitting up and eating. He was now strong and healthy and regaining his strength very fast. I consciously believe it saved the old man's life. Sincerely yours, FRANK SHAMTON, No. 5, No. 102 Block.

COXEY'S ARMY

Of 10,000 Commonwealers Driv-dle to Seventy-Five.

The General in State in a Carriage.
Marshals a-Horseback.

With the Bag Tag Afoot Leave Massillon on the March to Washington—A Snow-Storm Sets In and a Rumble of Drums in Camp at Canton.

CANTON, O., March 26.—Coxey's army of the Commonwealth moved out of Massillon Sunday on schedule time. There were perhaps 75 strangers in line at the start and 25 less when Canton, 8 miles away, was reached. Carl Brown, chief marshal, headed the procession.
He was mounted on a white horse and was followed by half a dozen aids, all mounted on horses belonging to Coxey, who rode in a carriage drawn by a pair of spirited steeds.

The procession consisted of the marshals, Coxey, his wife and sister, a bugler, four covered wagons, containing camping outfit, baked straw and several quarters of beef, a brass band that played all kinds of music at the side, and the soldiers of the commonwealth on foot. They marched single file and two abreast, as pleased their fancy.
With very few exceptions they were a hard-looking lot of citizens. This they obtained by white horses and the fault of our system of government.

The weather was pleasant when the start was made, but the procession was soon overtaken by a severe snow storm.
This had a depressing tendency and a number of desertions were reported before reaching Canton. When the march reached, after a brief stay at Rochman, the army resumed its onward march and reached Canton thirty after 4 o'clock, where camp Lexington was pitched.

On the march from Massillon to Canton the commonwealth army was followed by a mob of nearly a thousand people, in carriages, on horseback, on foot.
They made the welkin ring with cheers, and kept Coxey constantly bowing and lifting his hat.

On reaching Canton the army was greeted by fully 10,000 people, who were crowded on the sidewalks and in windows and balconies along Tuscarawas street. They were regarded as a huge joke, and good humor prevailed among all. Camp Lexington was pitched on a vacant lot near the workhouse, where a large crowd of people, including the tramps, constituting the army of the commonwealth at once began building bonfires, scattering straw upon the ground and making a general scene of riotous behavior.

The army had to start on its march without the "Gods of Peace," as no municipal court could be secured to relieve. Instead of a goddess a burly Negro has been enlisted to carry the banner, thus giving the African race representation in the march.

One group of five soldiers deserted in a body before Canton was reached.
Their marshal thought the soldiers were not excited enough, and in creation in sending a snowstorm upon the advancing hosts, and advised his men to break for a passing freight train. They took to the road and were heard from since. It is feared by some of Coxey's lieutenants that there will be more desertions before morning unless the weather moderates and the prevalence of comfortable hymns in these parts.

Coxey's life insurance policy has been rescinded, the officials of the company fearing he may meet with a violent end before finishing the present enterprise. Coxey is enthusiastic and claims the movement thus far exceeds his most sanguine expectations, but this is hardly in keeping with his former declarations. Canton and Massillon are endeavoring to Sunday with people who had come from surrounding towns and cities to witness the sight.

With the ground covered to the depth of half an inch with snow, nothing to eat but a short supply of bread and cheese, and a little straw to sleep on, the commonwealth army is anything but a joyous mob Sunday night. Muzzling under the big circus tent where the commonwealth army is quartered is a quarrelsome crowd.
Coxey's soldiers declare things must improve at once or they will go back to begging. Coxey and his lieutenants are still sanguine and are endeavoring to imbue their followers with confidence by making speeches, which, however, do not seem to have the desired effect.

Coxey said Sunday night: "I am now satisfied that I will be followed into Washington by 150,000 men. As people hear that we have a right to march they will begin to follow. Up to this time they have been afraid that we were bluffing. Now they see that we mean business."

Dr. Kirtland, of Pittsburgh, known as "The Cyclone," arrived at Canton Sunday evening and joined the army.
He says he has figured out by astrology that this is to be the grandest move the world has ever seen. Even if it does not turn out, it would be revived again. He knows this, because the stars have told him.

Nearly all the noted cranks in Ohio are now here, expressing determination to join Coxey. The army is expected to leave Canton at noon Monday for Lima, where Camp Peffer will be named in honor of Senator Peffer, of Kansas, who introduced the good roads and non-interest bearing bond bills.

Lieut. Brown announced Sunday night that seven groups of five from Canton and 25 strangers in line at the start and 25 less when Canton, 8 miles away, was reached. Solon C. Thayer, chief commissary marshal, got discomfited and resigned on reaching Canton. Ohio's first marshal, John O'Neill, of Cleveland, was appointed chief of the commissary marshals' staff. Coxey says he has no objection to the appointment.

A VETO SURE

The Seigniorage Bill Will Not Be Approved.

This Statement is Based Upon Information From a High Source.

Cleveland's Action Entirely Independent of the Secretary of the Treasury.
Treasury It is Claimed the Bill Would be a Mandatory Law.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The announcement that President Cleveland had made up his mind to veto the seigniorage bill during the coming week received every confirmation from the opinion of those best qualified to know the president's intention. The statement that the president will veto the bill is based upon information from a source high and very close to President Cleveland. The attitude of President Cleveland toward the bill, however, is entirely independent of the action of the secretary of the treasury.

The seigniorage bill, the author of the bill, has several times said he feared Secretary Carlisle would ultimately use his influence in favor of the bill. The truth is, however, that the president's action will be entirely independent of the secretary of the treasury. The atmosphere of Washington is entirely independent of the action of the secretary of the treasury. The president's action will be entirely independent of the action of the secretary of the treasury.

Horsesh & Co., the Jewellers, are now in their new quarters and their store is one of the handsomest in Northeastern Kentucky. Some very rare bargains in Jewels are offered by Hopper. Call and examine goods and be fair prices.

Go and look at the beautiful Irish Coffee or Tea Urn in Balleger's window. It's the best quality quadruple plate, and is very cheap at $12, which is the price today. It will be reduced $1 every day. It remains in the window until sold. The original price was $25.

"The people of this vicinity insist on having Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and do not want any other," says John V. Bishop, of Portland Mills, Indiana. That is right. They know it to be superior to any other for colds, and as a preventive, and cure for croup, and why should they not insist on having it. 50 cent bottles for sale for sale by Theo. C. Power, Drugist.

HERMANN LAMOR, the well known Cincinnati Jeweler, is offering some genuine novelties for the spring trade in silverware, etc. His line of watches, diamonds and in fact every article found in a first-class jewelry store are without equal anywhere. No reader of THE LEDGER will make a mistake if they will call on Mr. Lange when in Cincinnati and see his elegant stock and learn his prices. Don't forget the number, 181 Vine street.

THURSDAY is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; it can be done. If the proper treatment is adopted, well be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I cured me in three days. I am all right today and would not on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Drugist.

WONDERFUL CUT-PRICE SYSTEM

on first-class goods to cash buyers. Everyone who has bought in this store knows they are delighted. Cut the list out and keep it before you, as you can still get any of the goods at the same price; and in the meantime you have secured a valuable space, as it will, in a few days, contain more.

When it comes you will be prepared to take advantage of it. Remember, my stock is the largest, best selected and cheapest in town. I buy in large quantities for cash, get lowest prices and advertise to my customers. I handle only the best goods and guarantee every article I sell to be as represented. My business is to sell for the people. For Garden Seeds, Onion Sets and Seed Potatoes.
